

Workers' Compensation

Nil Wage Declaration

In all State jurisdictions, as an employer, you must insure your workers for workers compensation. In those jurisdictions the definitions of worker, employee, contractor who may be deemed to be an employee changes. Strata Community Insurance has undertaken to issue cover in your State as an essential part of your Strata policy.

Your included premium is based on your previous declaration to us:

Question	Response
1. Do you have Full Time or Part Time Employees?	No
2. Do you engage Contractors who are individuals working as Partnership or Sole Trader? (that is, any contractor that is not a corporation)	No
3. Do you engage Contractors other than those outlined in Question 2?	No
4. If your response to Question 3 is Yes, do you undertake to ensure that on each occasion the Contractor is insured against their full liabilities under the workers compensation law in the State in which the property is located?	Yes

Please note: if these answers are no longer correct and you now have wages to declare for either the current period or the upcoming renewal period, then you will be required to complete a full wages declaration.
